Sack Lunch To Be Held At Noon

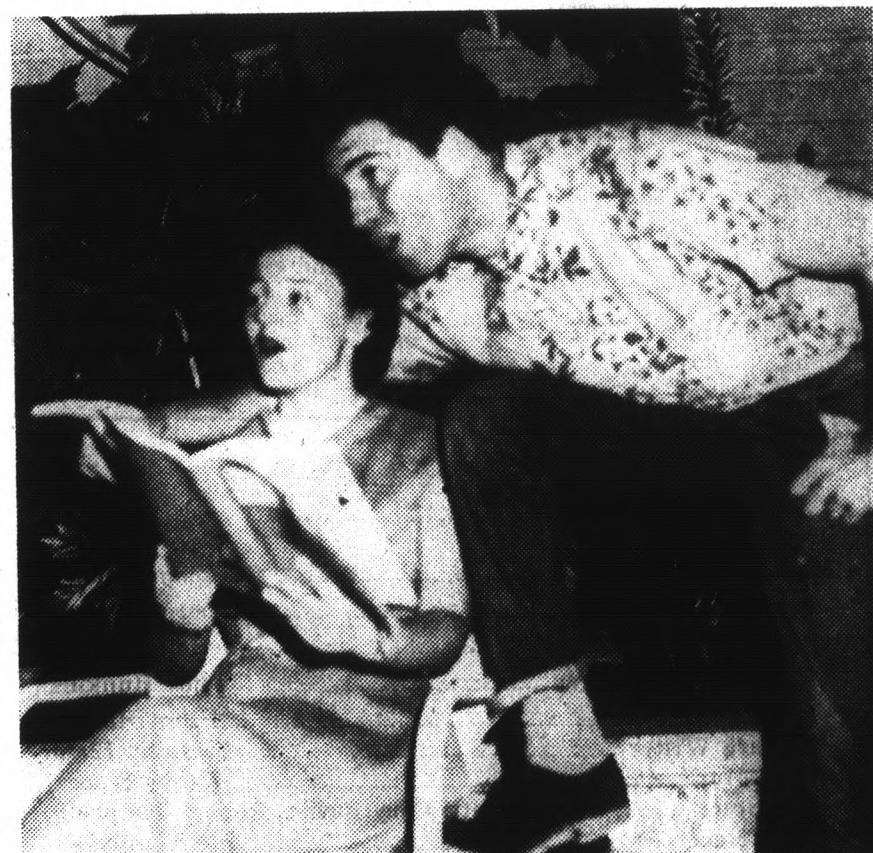

While a sack lunch is being served on the baseball field today at noon, members of the various campus clubs and the faculty will compete against one another in tug-of-wars and egg throwing contests.

A series of fire hose tugs-of-war will be presented with the losing team being dragged through a stream of water from a fire hose. The clubs that will participate in the wars are the Buccaneers, Veterans, Bachelors, and Los Caballeros. The winning team will meet the faculty team, but, without the aid of a fire hose.

In the egg throwing contest, Las Gitanas, Las Meninas, Las Hidas, and Spinster will compete against one another. Tentative plans were being made to have a women's faculty team.

During these contests the sack lunch, made by the cafeteria, will be distributed on the baseball field. Lunches will be given to those holding a ticket that came with the booster buttons for that purpose.

Fiesta Chairman, Budd Coons, said, "The sack lunch was provided so that students would not have to lose time going to and from home for lunches, and to keep them in the Fiesta mood all day."

SINGING LEADS—Carol Lacy and Jim Hollenbeck, who have the singing leads in the Fiesta musical, "Finian's Rainbow", talk over staging and cues during a recent rehearsal. The production will open tonight at the Santa Ana High School Auditorium at 8 p.m. (Photo by Zimmerman)

Beard Growers Tell Sad Tales

By Gary Butler

Do people stare when you walk down the street? Have amused chuckles and wondering looks become part of your life? Only those men on the campus who are sporting face-hair can fully appreciate those questions.

As one grizzled male put it when asked to comment on the off-campus stress placed on him by growing a beard, "When I tried to apply for a job up town, the manager flipped me two-bits and pointed to the 17th street bridge."

Physical Danger

Wearing a beard can actually involve physical danger. It seems on bewhiskered fellow playfully nudged his girl's elbow while she was sewing a button on one of her sweaters. She jabbed her finger with the needle and became irritated. Grabbing a pair of scissors, she deftly countered. There followed a loud "thwack!", and three weeks growth floated slowly towards the floor.

A worried freshman, uncertain of his beard's reception at a formal dance on another campus, carried her corsage in one hand and a razor with some brushless shave in the other.

Oops! Slipped

Speaking of razors, a sleepy student only growing a goatee slipped while shaving the rest of his face early one morning and lost two whiskers and a hair. Off his sparest side, too.

"It itches!" said one Don several issues ago. He was answered by an indignant co-ed this week. Said she, "It scratches! Scarlet O'Hara may have thought kissing a man without a moustache is like eating an egg without salt, but this gal knows different."

No Make-Up

Caught hastily blackening his chin with a lead pencil, Clemente Mendez admitted forgetting to apply his mascara in the morning rush. Having dyed my own goatee, I generously donated him my old eyebrow pencil. I mean really, lead actually does so little for one, doesn't it?

Large Portion Of Student Body Appears Before Kangaroo Court

By Dorothy Dees

Early last week the Fiesta Committee issued a proclamation.

It read, "For two weeks prior to Fiesta Day there will be a kangaroo court in session at various times. All men students should grow beards and women students wear pig-tails or ponytails. Those without beards, pig-tails, ponytails, or Fiesta Booster Buttons will be arrested and appropriate action taken by the court."

For the past two weeks, these threats have been carried out. Almost every day a Kangaroo court has been in session and has prosecuted a large portion of the student body.

At first, all violators of the Fiesta requirements were fined, usually 50 centavos or sentenced to solitary confinement, in the telephone booth.

Each day, however, the sentences became more severe. Four-time losers, such as Gertrude Bobleter, received stronger sentences. She pushed a ping-pong ball across the patio with her nose, one day. The next time, she had to stand on one of the patio tables for two minutes.

Regular offenders like Marty Musick have been required to kiss fellow defendants from time to time. Others have made speeches before the court as part of their punishment.

The first week court was in session, the male students acted as deputies, with Bill Grant as sheriff. This week though, the women took over and managed to make more arrests than the men. Most of their prisoners were able to escape, however.

Each one up before the court was allowed to speak in his or her defense or had the defending attorney do so. Only a fortunate few escaped the wrath of the judge.

Those who have appeared before the court include, Gertrude Bobleter, Dorothy Dees, Jo Ann Van Landingham, June Conner, Bud Hunsinger, Bob Bradley, Marty Musick, Jerry Smock, Lee Riley, Virginia Cook, Bert Kohnhorst, Pete Pendarvis, Pete Borkenhagen, Gulham Mohammed, Wanda Johnson, Leroy Carreiro, Diane Cave, Eileen Kathman, Carl Venstrom, John Johnson, Dr. Force, Royal Marten, Mrs. Hazel Gish, Toni Miller, Marlene Monahan, Barbara Buehner, Gary Butler, Connie Durham, Barbara Lawrence, Larry Davidson, Vern Madison, and Theresa Seely.

College. At present she is secretary of Las Gitanas and has been a member of WAA.

Mendez is majoring in Spanish and French, and plans to attend Long Beach State after graduation.

He will appear in the production of "Finian's Rainbow" tonight as part of the dance chorus.

He is a member of Spanish club, Newman Club, and Bachelors Service Club.

Santa Ana College Celebrates 26th Annual Fiesta Today

By Ron Hallett

The old Spanish custom of an annual Fiesta was initiated as a regular event at SAC on May 18, 1928. Since then, this ancient Spanish custom has proven to be a thriving yearly event enjoyed by students and faculty alike at SAC.

It has been an event each year where many features of the lives of early Californians have been relived. Special features of great popularity have included the primitive custom of the Indians, the fortitude and devotion of the Spanish American Padres, and the dash and gaiety of the Spanish Dons and Donas, and the hardships and endurance of the early American settler.

Originally, the first Fiesta lasted two days instead of just one. Thursday was popularly called "Don's Day," and Friday was "College Day." The Fiesta dance was extended still another day. The Orange American Legion Hall was picked to be the dancing ground for a Saturday evening long to be remembered. The following year, the Fiesta activities were shortened to one day. It was in this year, 1929, that the original beginnings of the beard growing contest originated.

1933 Fiesta

A Fiesta to top all Fiestas was performed in the year 1933 under the theme "The Indian in California History." This Fiesta featured a group of Indians from the Pala Indian reservation. Primitive ceremonial dances were performed and the exhibition was topped off with the amazing dance of fire. A huge fire had been built in the center of the area and, after much chanting and dancing, was put out almost in the twinkling of an eye. This amazing feat was performed with no aids or instruments save the bare hands and feet of the now frenzied dancers.

Glenn Active

Thomas H. Glenn, SAC English department head, has played a major role in the annual Fiesta Day celebrations since the commencement twenty-six years ago.

Succeeding Fiestas have seen many different personalities in attendance. Among them have been Father St. John O'Sullivan of the San Juan Capistrano Mission. Until his death, he was always present to officiate in the coronation of the Don and Dona and to relate something of the early California history that SAC was trying to recreate. It was to Father O'Sullivan that the first college Fiesta committee, under the leadership of Thomas H. Glenn, turned for authentic information and advice in establishing the annual fiesta.

Further Contributors

Many others have contributed time and effort to make Fiesta history; Madame Manulla Budrow, former operatic artist of Mexico City. Miss Budrow sang at the first Fiesta. Mrs. Terry Stephenson, former Orange County historian and antiquarian, gave valuable aid and encouragement to the Fiesta Committee, Mrs. Eleanor Northcross, dean of women of those days, was always available with valuable information concerning early California customs. Jose Arias and numerous other musicians and dancers have added gaiety and delight each year.

Distinguished Speakers

Many distinguished speakers have also been present to add variety and informative talks to the Fiestas. These speakers have helped recall to the minds of SAC students and faculty alike the stirring events and earnest builders in the story of California's past.

Many rich and rare experiences of the past years return to SAC as this Fiesta day arrives with its traditions and drama of the past.

'53 SAC Grad In Germany; Plans Tour With Mother

Bud Ottoway, SAC journalism grad of '53, is presently stationed with the U.S. Army in Germany, and will meet his mother, Mrs. William W. Ottoway of Laguna Beach, in Germany within the next two weeks and the two will travel through Switzerland and Italy after which they will spend three weeks together in Germany.

During his first year at SAC, Ottoway was a news reporter and sport's writer on the El Don. During his second year he was sport's editor of the El Don and won top recognition from the University of Minnesota journalism department for his writing and editing work.

His father, Mr. William Ottoway, is publisher of the Laguna weekly newspaper The South Coast News. Ottoway Sr. was one of the publishers active in the recent Journalism Day at Santa Ana College.

Don, Dona To Reign Today

Destined to reign over all the Fiesta activities, Don Clemente Mendez, and Dona Esther Valles will be crowned during the Coronation Breakfast today which begins at 7:30 a.m. in the Cafeteria.

Both Don and Dona are sophomores and graduates of Santa Ana High School. Miss Valles is majoring in physical therapy and is the third sister to attend SAC, being preceded by Viola and Aurora. Her father also attended Santa Ana

THE 20TH ANNUAL FIESTA was held in 1948 when Dona Pricilla Christ and Don Bill Pappas ruled the fiesta. This was a great day since students celebrated their first year on the new Santa Ana College campus. Students and faculty wore their costumes all day, and ended the Fiesta by the annual school dance. The present student union was not yet erected so the dance was held on a temporary floor constructed between building "A" and building "E".

A SMILING DON AND DONA were found in charge of Fiesta during 1938. They were Bob Horseman and Maxine Wells. El Don Photo.

Acting, Stage Work, Oral Reading, Public Speaking, And Radio Work Offered By SAC

(Editor's Note: Following is the fifteenth of a series of articles written by Lorraine Elam, El Don reporter, to acquaint students with various departments of the college.)

Did you ever dream of being on the stage? Would you like to create with a few boards, some paint, and twenty yards of cloth, the sets and costumes for a play? Or would you like to be able to speak before an audience with poise and assurance? The SAC Speech Department can teach you these skills and many more.

After a student has completed the first semester of work in speech 1AB he will be able to prepare and deliver with logic and conviction a four to six minute speech. At least twelve speeches are given before the class during the semester.

After Dinner Speeches

In the second half of the course the student learns to make after dinner speeches, he studies persuasive speech, panel discussion, and how to be a master of ceremonies.

Speech 2AB is devoted to voice improvement, reading aloud and interpreting ideas of others from the printed page to an audience. Students are taught how to interpret Shakespeare intelligently, how to prepare literary programs for recital performance, and performance standards.

Students who plan to take only two years of college work will find Speech 71 valuable in acquiring the ability to speak before groups.

"Those who have a desire to do club or organization work of any type should have a basic knowledge of parliamentary law," remarked Mr. C. Lee Ford, as he described the various courses of the department. Speech 76 gives study and practice in the basic rules of procedure for the conducting of meetings.

Imaginations Sharpened

Speech 10AB, is a basic course in acting, develops poise, improves the speaking voice and sharpens the imagination. Pantomime, a means of expression, without words, is taught to develop the art of expression through the use of the body and face. They also read and act out parts of the best plays, besides taking part in theatrical productions of the college players.

A study of design and construction of scenery, lighting, and drama."

painting is made in the course on Stagecraft, 28AB. Students learn styles of theatrical setting from realism to impressionism. They learn how to create atmosphere, how to mix paints, elementary carpentry, and the handling and care of basic tools.

"Initiative is developed in the stagecraft and costuming classes," said Rita Riggs, instructor of speech and radio classes at SAC. "When students become part of the backstage crew of a theatrical production, they learn the importance of teamwork and cooperation."

Costumes Designed

The members of speech class 28CD design and construct the costumes of all the theatrical productions given by the college players. A basic history of costumes from the time of the Egyptians to contemporary times is given. The students receive instruction in elementary costume design, pattern drafting and cutting.

Next fall there will be a new course, Speech 3AB, giving a historical survey of the theater. This course is designed for both the drama major and the student interested in acquiring a better understanding of the theater.

Radio Workshop

Radio Workshop, or Speech 14AB is a study of basic radio techniques from the use of microphones and sound equipment to the writing and production of scripts. Students get practical experience in radio stations such as KBIG and KVOE.

"In the Speech Department we try to serve a two-fold purpose," said Ford. "First to give the student the training and experience required by a lower division speech or drama major. Second, to provide all interested students with training and experience that will give them a better appreciation of movies, radio, television, and drama."

Don Trackmen Second In So. Cal. JC Meet

By Don Allison

Fresh from a victory in the All-Eastern JC Conference Meet, Don trackmen, traveling to East Los Angeles, on May 7, to take part in the Southern California JC Championship Track Meet and, by scoring 55 points, finished second to Compton.

Big Ed Denbow scored the only win for SAC by taking the two mile run in 9 min. 51.2 sec. Closest to the Don gold medal winner was SAC's Tommy Frazier, timed in 9 min. 54.3 sec.

Chuck Neal fell 2 1-4 inches short of a victory in the broad-jump, as Gamble, of East Los Angeles, sailed 23 ft. 6 1-4 in. to win the event.

Don hurdlers put up a game fight. Dick Carson, besides claiming a third in the highs, saved second in the 220 lows, won by Daniel of Compton in 23.4; Jack McCosh followed Carson home for the show, while Noon ran sixth.

Although Don sprinter Bert Kohnhorst, back in training after a leg injury, was not able to compete in the 100 or 220, he helped out in the mile relay, combining with Woolfe, Winter, and Neal to take fifth place in 3 min. 24.5 sec.

Other Don scorers were Tom Noll, who saved fourth in the blanket finish of the 880, and Ronald Adel, who threw the discus 133 ft. 1/2 in. for fifth.

Following are the final scores for all teams at the Southern California JC Championship Track Meet:

1. Compton, 66; 2. Santa Ana, 55; 3. Tie between LA Valley and LACC, 51 each; 5. Mt. SAC 33; 6. Long Beach, 30; 7. East Los Angeles, 29; 8. Glendale, 27; 9. Harbor, 20; 10. Pasadena, 18; 11. Santa Monica, 14; 12. Bakersfield, 12; 13. Chaffey, 11; 14. El Camino, 10; 15. Fullerton, 4; 16. Muir, 2; 17. San Bernardino, 1; Orange Coast, Antelope Valley and Citrus failed to score.

CHAFFEY KICKS DON RUGGERS

Playing their first regulation length rugby match of the season, Santa Ana's Dons lost to Chaffey, 3-5, last Friday night at the Municipal Bowl in Santa Ana.

George Gumbrecht scored all three of SAC's points but was unable to tie the score with a field goal attempt. And, because of a misunderstanding of goal line positions, a touch-down, which would have won the game for SAC, was not allowed.

Favored Mounties Whip Don Netmen In Conference Final

Several members of SAC's tennis team made the semi-finals of the All-Eastern Conference Tennis Tournament, held at Mt. San Antonio JC, Friday of last week, but the Mounties swept the tournament in finals competition.

As expected, the tournament was a dual meet between Santa Ana and Mt. SAC by the time the matches had reached the semis.

Bill Reed, Don ace, seeded second in singles competition, was upset by Glenn Stanford 8-6, 6-8, 6-8 in a game that marked three hours of actual play. Fourth seeded Lee Blair was defeated by defending conference champion Fedro Yanez 6-0, 6-2. Despite the seemingly low score, many Mounty spectators said that next to Reed earlier in the season, Blair gave Yanez his toughest match yet this year.

Yanez a ranking tournament player, teamed with Stanford to take SAC's Bill Mounce and Tom Caverly 6-1, 6-2 in doubles. The favored doubles team of Reed and Gene Finster lost to Basore and Barnett of the Mounties 6-3, 7-5.

Don Player Chuck Kates moved into the second round on Thursday, but was eliminated by Yanez in the quarter-finals 6-0, 6-0.

All those who reached the quarter-finals at Mt. SAC are eligible to enter the Southern California Junior College Championships, May 13-15, at Long Beach. Several Dons are entered.

Coach Maurice Gerard announced the names of the eight tennis lettermen in the order of their ranking. They are Bill Reed, Lee Blair, Bill Mounce, Gene Finster, Charles Kates (a two year letterman), Tom Caverly, Ted Palmer, and Gary Butler.

Men's Fashion Show

man, and full-back Rod Descamps. Other squad members seeing action were Bill Whalen, Gene York, Bill Kerr, Chuck Lyons, Pete Pendarvis, Fred Grajeda, Bob Quigley, Don Davis, Ralph Lopez, Fred Roberts, and Herb Larsh.

Rugby takes a bye this week due to the Fiesta. Play will be resumed next Friday night against either Eagle Rock or Orange Coast. Games start at 8 p.m. in the Municipal Bowl; admission is free.

SAC, HORNETS IN DUAL TODAY

Don baseballers will meet the Fullerton Hornets in an annual Fiesta Day diamond duel this afternoon at 3 p.m. in Memorial Park.

The Hornets, who polished off league leading Orange Coast, 10-6, a week ago, may prove very tough for Eddie Eaton's boys.

Just three days ago, Tuesday, May 11, Don ball men suffered a beating at the hands of San Bernardino, 9-6.

Wylie Flores gave four free trips in the first inning, and, with three Indian hits, San Bernardino went into the lead, 5-0.

The Dons came back in the 2nd, however, scoring two runs and being retired with the bases loaded. SAC's Bob Towey pushed in another run in the 3rd.

In the 5th, with another Indian run in, and two men out, SAC pitcher Jack Dales went in for Flores and secured a strikout to retire the side.

But the Dons, in the bottom of the 5th, took advantage of a balk and three walks by Indian pitcher Talley to score three unearned runs and move the game into a 6-6 tie.

San Bernardino brought in a new pitcher, Height, who stopped the Dons' hitting.

Hart Fires 74 At Chino; Dons 2nd In Finals

In the All-Eastern Conference Finals at Los Serranos Country Club last Friday, Don golfer Jim Hart, topping a field of 30 junior college linkmen, fired a 74 to walk away with the Medalist Trophy for individual low scorer, as Santa Ana College finished second in team competition.

Golfers from six Southland junior colleges, Chaffey, Mt. SAC, Orange Coast, San Bernardino, Riverside and SAC, divided into foursomes for the rugged 18-hole tour over the Chino course. The favored Riverside quintet took the Finals with SAC a close second.

The Dons took to the greens with a two-win, two-loss, one tie record. They posted victories over Mt. SAC, early in the season, and Chaffey on April 30.

Hart, with his two over par 74, boasted a five stroke lead at the end of the 18 holes. Ray Echols, another of SAC's shooters, finished in a tie for runner-up honors, heading for the 19th with a 79.
